Description

Literature holder for Infoboard

This literature holder is an optional extra for the Infoboard information display board. The double-sided display shelf is made from clear acrylic for a clean and simple style that complements the Infoboard stand perfectly.

- Easy to use – the shelf slots on to the crossbar rail below the poster frame
- Each side will hold 2 stacks of A4 brochures, pamphlets or leaflets
- Ideal for takeaway information, promotions, product specifications, timetables etc.

Additional Information

More Information	The shelf unit is made from acrylic, also known as perspex or PMMA. It is load bearing and will allow a good stack of brochures to be displayed on the Infoboard. This combination provides a good way to display posters and brochures together – ideal for in-store promotions and promoting events.
