Description

Literature shelf for InfoColumn display unit

This silver painted steel literature shelf attaches easily to the InfoColumn pole.

- Each shelf will display two facings of A4 brochures.
- The literature racks are set at the appropriate angle for easy viewing and optimum display.
- By combining literature shelves on a single pole (front and back) it is possible to display up to 16 different A4 brochures or leaflets. Click on image to view.
- Alternatively, by combining a steel literature shelf with a poster holder it is possible to design your own floor-standing promotion stand featuring both graphics and brochures.

Additional Information

More Information	Large brochure display stands can be configured using our InfoColumn freestanding display. View the large image to see how by adding steel literature shelves it is possible to build up a free-standing unit which will display up to 16 brochure facings at a time. Alternatively you can combine a single brochure shelf with a poster frame for a low cost stylish promotional stand - ideal for use at exhibitions, trade shows, conferences, office reception areas etc. An InfoColumn base and pole must be ordered to complete the installation.
