Zig Zag design for double-sided literature display

This wooden literature display stand consists of five angled shelves in an attractive and vibrant 'zig zag' design, presenting leaflets on each side to catch your customer and client's attention. Freestanding wooden leaflet stand, made from attractive and sustainable beech wood, stands almost 150 cm tall. The double-sided design offers a unique way to show off your leaflets, brochures and advertising from all angles in a small space – perfect for smaller stores, exhibitions and retail stands.

- Sturdy and robust wooden zig zag leaflet display stand with a lacquered finish which brings out the natural beauty of the wood
- The zig zag design provides an attention-grabbing focal point for all your literature
- 5 A4 portrait shelves give plenty of space for your leaflets, brochures and magazines
- Additional lowest shelf can be used to stick on an additional leaflet or brand message
- Eco friendly leaflet holder stand made from beech wood sourced from sustainable forests

The high-quality and solid look and feel of this wooden brochure stand will suit a range of settings – for example, bookshops and libraries can use the shelves to highlight their books of the week or salon and spa reception areas can use this natural-looking product to present treatment brochures. In fact, consider using the Wooden Zig Zag wherever you need a free-standing, stable literature display!
